Vegetable Growers Registered in MarketMaker

The MarketMaker map above shows the geographical locations of 100 of the 4,223 vegetable growers registered or listed in the national MarketMaker program. To find local vegetable growers in your state, do a Business Search among Farmer/Racher by clicking the link shown below the map. When the Mississippi MarketMaker shows up, select Vegetables then you can Search By county, city, zip code or multiple states.

The bar chart above shows the long-term U.S. per capita availability of all vegetables in fresh weight equivalent pounds recently published by USDA-ERS. This long-term trend suggests that per capita vegetable consumption has slowly declined during the past decade since its peak in late 1990s. The per capita availability of all vegetables averaged about 402 pounds during the past decade.
